

The Schwartz Family

“We purchased our home in Coconut Reef pre-construction & watched it being built. The development was just cleared land at that time. We were so excited when we saw the entrance sign go up & after that the foundation of our home finally poured. Now there are so many shops & restaurants, but back then we really had nothing around us! Still happy to be living in SilverLakes all these years later! “

